Elizabeth City County

was created in 1618 as the Corporation of Kecoughtan, one of the original four ancient boroughs. Its name was changed about 1619 to Elizabeth City, and in 1634 it was established as one of the eight original shires.

Elizabeth City Parish contains all of the area on the north side of the James River.

July 1, 1952 it merged into the City of Hampton.

"The Laws of a country are necessarily connected with every thing belonging to the people of it; so that a thorough knowledge of them, and of their progress would inform us of every thing that was most useful to be known about them; and one of the greatest imperfections of historians in general, is owing to their ignorance of law."

1004 EZRA[5] WINSLOW (Elizabeth[4] Paine, Susannah[3] Haskell, Patience[2] Soule, George[1]), b. Freetown 10 May 1751; d. Hardwick, Worcester Co 12 Aug. 1789, ae 38 years 2 months 3 weeks 1 day; "killed by a fall".

He m. Dartmouth 28 Jan. 1773 ROSAMOND SPOONER, dau. of Thomas and Rebeckah (Paddock) Spooner, b. Newport RI 21 March 1751; d. Barnard VT 27 April 1829. She was a descendant of Pilgrim John Alden. She m. (2) (int. Hardwick) Barnard VT, Richard Ransom.

In 1797 Joseph and Ezra Winslow over 14 and Rosa/Rosamond and Rex under 14 children of Ezra Winslow deceased of Hardwick chose [uncle] Jeduthan Spooner as guardian. Daughter, Rosamond, died testate 1803 and her estate was divided Brookfield, Worcester Co. 9 April 1805 to her bothers and sisters thus: Sukey Babbit, Thomas Winslow, Alice Dexter, Joseph, Ezra and Rex Winslow. Ezra Winslow may have been a Loyalist in the American Revolution. His family moved with their step-father to Barnard VT and Vol.2 of Barnard Vt. History gives more data.

Children (WINSLOW), all bp. Hardwick: i. SUKEY/SUSAN[6], b. 1773, named in estate. ii. THOMAS, b. 15 Sept. 1776. iii. ALLIS (ALICE?),bp. 16 Nov. 1777. iv. JOSEPH,bp. 27 Aug. 1780. v. 1005 JOB[5] WINSLOW (Elizabeth[4] Paine, Susannah[3] Haskell, Patience[2] Soule, George[1]), d. Hardwick 5 July 1785.

He m. MARGARET COOLEY, dau. of Benjamin and Mary (Needham) Cooley, b. Greenwich 13 Nov. 1757; d. Pittsford VT 31 Dec. 1808. She m. (2) Peter Rice of Pittsford VT.

Apparently Job became an alcholic, because the Probate Court took control of his property and his debts, noting a wife and children, but not naming them. With an estate sharply reduced in value, the widow may have gone with her two small children to Pittsford VT as part of her brother Col. Benjamin Cooley's family.

Children (WINSLOW) b. Hardwick: i. THOMAS[6]. ii. JOB, b. 1783.

"It will be seen by the above list that the six youngest soldiers present are of the age of 67. The oldest soldier present 84. The total number present 81, the total number of the combined ages of all 6,012 and the average age as a total divide 74. This is a remarkable showing on the longevity of life, but our veterans in a few years will be gone. But their memory will always be a high and patriotic inspiration for generations to come in the South."

This clipping appeared in the WASHINGTON COUNTY NEWS on Thursday, April 26, 1973. The original was contributed by Tom Merrihue of Emory, Virginia. A picture of these veterans appeared in the same newspaper on April 19, 1973.
Miscellaneous Notes concerning the veterans: JOHN WILLIAM CRIGGER died 4 Aug. 1930. JOHN K. JACKSON's middle name was KIRBY. ABSALOM LONGACRE IRESON & JOHN S. MULLEN were brothers-in-law.

English Clues:
Tyng, Coley, Cooley and Seabrook

BY ROBERT L. WARD

While searching for data relative to another family, information which might indicate the English homes of five early New England settlers was serendipitously uncovered. No thorough study of these families was made and the reader should not assume positive identification without further research. Nonetheless, it is felt that this information should be presented in print at this time, so that others may follow through the research to either prove or disprove the connection of those below with the New England settlers of the same names.

I. TYNG

Two brothers, Edward and William Tyng, were settlers of Boston, Massachusetts, at an early date. Their ages are approximately the same as those of two brothers of the same names baptized in the parish of Stanford Rivers, co. Essex. An abstract of the register of that parish, listing all entries by the name of Tyng from 1538 to 1650, follows.

BAPTISMS

1539 Henry Tynge, son of Willm, xvii Feb. [1539/40]
1542 John Tynge, son of Willm, xxvi May 1545 Lawrence Tynge, son of Willm, x Aug.
1560 Joane Tynge, dau. of Willm, xiii Apr.
1561 Edward Tynge, son of Willm, 21 June
1563 Parnel Tynge, dau. of Willm ye yonger, 9 May 1565 Bennet Tynge, dau. of Willm the younger, 2 June
1569 Clemence Tynge, dau. of Edward, xii July
1573 Richard Tynge, son of Willm, xxix July
Priscilla Tynge, 1 Feb. [1573/4]
1577 Edward Tynge, son of Edward, xii May 1580 Joane Tynge, dau. of Edward, 13 March [1580/1]
1600 John Tyng, son of Edward, xx July
1602 William Tyng, son of Edward, 16 Jany [1602/3]
1605 John Tyng, son of Edward, 20 May 1608 Richard Tyng, son of Edward, xxviii Aug.
Elizabeth Tyng, dau. of Richard, iiii Sept.
1610 Edward Tyng, son of Edward, xxx Dec.
1614 Maria Tyng, dau. of Edward, 2 Oct.

MARRIAGES

1583 Robert Bushe and Jone Tynge, widow, xxiv Dec.
1590 John Ingoll and Catherine Tynge, 26 Apr.
John Colt and Annis Tyng, widow, 14 Sept.
1596 John Bailie Sse (?) [Bayley Jr., per copy] and Jane Tynge, xxvi Sept.
1602 Thomas Jefferie and Priscilla Tynge, 5 Apr.
1606 John Tyng and Ann Bailey, xiii Sept.

1639 Christopher Gower and Anne Tyng, wid., 25 June

BURIALS

1543 John Tynge, son of Willm., iiii May 1547 Thomas Tynge, son of Willm., xxx ----
1550 Joane Tynge, dau. of Willm., xxiii Apr.
1562 Edwd Tynge, son of Willm., died xxix June
1565 Bennet Tynge, dau. of Willaim the ygr, xiii June
1568 Elizabeth Ting, 16 Dec.
1581 Edward Tynge, iii Apr.
1589 William Tinge, xxix May
1602 John Tyng, son of Edward, xxx Aug.
1614 George Tingge, 9 Mar. [1614/15]
1615 ----- Ting, widow of George, 16 Feb. [1615/16]
1615 Mary Ting, dau. of Edward and Mary, 16 Feb. [1615/16]
1618 George Tinge, son of George, 20 Apr.
1619 Edward Tinge, 27 Aug.
1621 widow Tinge, wife of Edward, 3 June
1638 John Ting, 23 Oct.
1650 Ann Gower, wife of Christopher, 30 Dec.

Without wills or other records it is impossible to construct an adequate pedigree, but attention is called to the apparent brothers William Tyng, bapt. 16 Jan. 1602/3, and Edward Tyng, bapt. 30 Dec. 1610, sons of Edward and Mary (-----) Tyng, as possibly the New England settlers.

II. COLEY AND COOLEY

Samuel Coley of Milford, Conn., and Benjamin Cooley of Springfield, Mass., have been conjectured by some to have been related. This seems to be solely based on the fact that a daughter of each married two Chapin brothers. On the basis of approximate age and family names, it seems possible that they were both baptized in the parish of Tring, co. Hertford, although not brothers, possibly first or second cousins. An abstract of the baptisms under the name of Coley, Cooley and variants, taken from the Tring parish register, is given below. Note variations in spelling and apparent equivalence of the forms Coley and Cooley.

The emigrants may be the two children baptized in 1614 and 1615. Note that Samuel Coley had children named Peter, Abilene, Samuel, Sarah, Mary, Hannah and Thomas. Benjamin Collet had Bethia, Obadiah, Eliakim, Daniel, Sarah, Benjamin, Mary and Joseph.

The will of Joseph Cooley of Tring, co. Hertford, yeoman, is printed in L. E. Cooley, The Cooley Family (1941), p. 22. It is dated 18 April 1643, mentions wife Agnes, son Joseph (executor), daughter Sarah, and friends Richard Smyth of Tring and Thomas Elliott, overseers, who were also witnesses (probated at London, 2 Aug. 1660 by Executor Joseph Cooley, the son, (PCC 169 Nabbs).

From Boyd's Marriage Index, Grooms 1601-1625:

Colley, Francis and Frances Seare, 1604, Ivinghoe, Bucks
Colley, William and Joan Arnott, 1608, Tring, Herts
Cooley, John and Mary Bland, 1612, Ware, Herts

III. SEABROOK

The late Donald Lines Jacobus, in his History and Genealogy of the Families of Old Fairfield 1:523, discusses Robert Seabrook, one of the early settlers of Stratford, Conn. He reviews the possibility that the Stratford settler might be identical with the man of that name who m. Alice Goodspeed (cousin of Roger Goodspeed, the Barnstable settler), 12 Sept. 1596, at Wingrave, Bucks. It seems very likely that the latter man is identical with one Robert Seabrook of Tring, co. Herford, mentioned below. An extract of the baptisms of the Seabrook family from the parish register of Tring follows.

BAPTISMS (beginning 1566)

9 Oct.	1567	Mary	d Robert Seabrooke
3 Sept	1570	James	s Robert Sabrooke
11 Jan.	1572	Robert	s Robert Seabrooke

If these records pertain to the Stratford settler, then he must have had a second wife, mother of his two younger daughters who married Thomas Fairchild and Tho-

American Origins by Pine have died out) but some of them are very important, such as Fitz-Gerald, FitzMaurice, or De Courcy and De Stacpool, and their names are widespread.

English Families

English families settled in Ireland between 1485 and 1690. These were the ruling class, the "old ascendancy," as the Irish called them, and their records have been well kept. An instance of one of these families is that of the Duke of Wellington. His real name was not Wellesley but Colley, the surname of an English settler who went to Ireland about 1500 and whose descendant married the heiress of the Wellesleys (this is the same name as Wesley). It should be remembered, however, that many of the English settlers who went to Ireland became more Irish than the Irish themselves in the course of a few generations. In a recent list of the cabinet ministers in the Republic of Ireland there are such (originally) non-Irish names as Norton, Everett, Keyes, Sweetman, and Blowick. These are not Irish names in origin, and they may have been adopted by the ancestors of the present bearers, as noted above; but it is more probable that the ancestors were from England or Scotland. The Keyes family certainly went to Ireland after living for centuries in England. Many of Cromwell's soldiers were granted land in Ireland, but their children and grandchildren became completely Irish. In the Irish telephone directory there are many instances of Collins, an English name. Michael Collins, who helped to bring about the treaty with Great Britain in 1921, was one of the leading Sinn Feiners. The name of Joyce is more common now in Ireland than in England, but it was originally English and derived from Joyce, a medieval Christian name. Pyne figures among the list of English settlers under Cromwell and again under William of Orange. In Ireland now it is found fairly often as an Irish name. Therefore, the inquirer who is apparently of Irish stock may well find himself of ancient English descent.

The Ulster Families

As already explained, these are of Scottish and English descent.

I shall deal with each of these groups in turn, but I shall begin with the last and work backward, because the majority of Irish

Anna, Thomas, William - 40
Deeds 9, 22 George - 8 & 22, 40 Printed

He married near Glade Spring, January 19, 1850, Caroline, daughter of Granville Williams, and the issue of the marriage is nine children: Sallie Kate, Cora B., Robert D., Nannie May, Joseph White, Viola J., William Winzell, Jesse Lawrence, Conley Frank. Mrs. Clark was born in Smyth county, Virginia, where her father's and mother's families were pioneer settlers. Granville Williams, her father, is a son of Levi Williams, and her mother is Sallie, daughter of John James, Esq.

Mr. Clark was in service through the late war, the first year in Company D, 37th Virginia Infantry, the remaining time in the famous 1st Virginia Cavalry, with which he took part in almost every battle fought by the renowned Army of Northern Virginia. Of his near and distant relatives, hardly one able to bear arms was not in the same service.

CHRISTIAN M. COLLEY.

The farm on which Mr. Colley resides, and which he cultivates, three and one-half miles east of Abingdon, was first settled by his maternal grandfather, Jacob M. Morell, who came here from Shenandoah county, Virginia, more than one hundred years ago. His daughter Mary married Shadrach Colley, who was a son of Thomas Colley, the latter coming to this country from France, and fighting for the Independence of America under Washington. The subject of this sketch is the son of Shadrach and Mary (Morell) Colley, and was born November 12, 1813, on the farm where he still resides.

Near Abingdon, at the residence of the bride's father he married, April 7, 1835, Mary, daughter of William McDaniel, born in 1811 on the place where they were married. Her father came to the county from Maryland, where he was born. Seven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Colley: Letitia, Thomas W., Wm. Lewis, Mary Jane, Elizabeth Catharine, Lierann, Sarah Susan. The first and last named of these are now deceased. Thomas and Wm. Lewis were soldiers of Company D, 1st Virginia Cavalry, C. S. A. Thomas was disabled by the loss of a foot, in 1863; Lewis served till the close of the war. The father served nine months with Gen. Floyd as wagon-master in Northwest Virginia, but his age incapacitated him for field service.

THOMAS W. COLLEY.

The founder of this family in Virginia came to the colony from Wales, and was the father of Thomas Colley, who was born in Pittsylvania county, removed to Russell county, and was the father of Shadrach Colley, whose son, Christian M. Colley, married Mary, daughter of William McDaniel, who came to Washington county from Maryland. Thomas W., subject of this sketch, son of Christian M. and Mary Colley, was born near Abingdon, on November 30, 1837. On Christmas Day, 1872, he married Ann Eliza Ryan, who was born near Abingdon, June 15, 1851. Their children were born in the order named: James Lewis (deceased), Daniel T., Fitzhugh Lee, Frank T., Mary L., Ella Ryan (deceased), Barbara C., Sallie H. (deceased), John M. Mrs. Colley is a daughter of James Ryan, of Washington county, son of James Ryan, who came from Ireland. Her mother was Barbara, daughter of John Morell, of Washington county. The Morells were of French extraction, and came to this country previous to 1760.

Mr. Colley entered service in the late war in April, 1861, in the Washington Mounted Rifles. He was wounded August 12, 1862, in the battle of Waterloo Bridge; again wounded at Kellys Ford, March 17, 1863, where he was shot through the body, and left on the field for dead; a third time wounded, and permanently disabled, May 28, 1864, near Cold Harbor, losing left foot. He cultivates a farm near Abingdon, and has held public office, deputy sheriff from 1871 to 1875; superintendent of the poor, 1879 to 1887.

JOHN D. COSBY.

The subject of this sketch was born in Buckingham county, Virginia, on the 8th of November, 1840. He is a son of Rev. Lewis F. Cosby, whose family record is in the sketch following this one. In April, 1861, he joined Company K, 37th Virginia Infantry, C. S. A., and was one of the first men from Washington county to mount the train that was to carry the volunteers to the front. In August, 1861, he was disabled by typhoid fever, at Garretts Ford, on Cheat river, Virginia, at the time General Garnett was killed. Later he served two years in the 1st Virginia Cavalry, and was in active service through the war, except when disabled by sickness. On April 9, 1865, his command was outside of the lines, and not included in Lee's surrender, the men returning to their homes.

In 1871 John D. Cosby was elected sheriff of Washington county for three years, and subsequently was twice re-elected, serving twelve years as sheriff after having served three years as deputy sheriff. At "Panacella," on the 15th of December, 1875, he was united in marriage to Miss Sue M. Litchfield, by Rev. W. E. Cunningham. She was born on the 20th of July, 1843, at Abingdon, and is the daughter of George V. Litchfield, who died in Abingdon on February 5, 1874. Her mother was Rachel D., daughter of John Mitchell, Esq., of Saltville and Abingdon, Virginia. One child, Mary Connally Cosby, blesses this union.

"Panacella," the beautiful home of Mr. Cosby, overlooking the town of Abingdon, was formerly the country seat of old Judge Johnston, was born near Wytheville, January 4, 1830, a daughter of Rufus and Sally (Brown) Repass. Her parents were born in Wythe county, and her father died in this county July 31, 1878. Mr. Cassell served in the Home Guards under Colonel Joseph F. Kent during the late war. He was called out with the militia to repel a raid in 1862, and was two weeks under arms. From July, 1861, until July, 1873, he ably filled the office of justice of the peace. His time is now all given to farming and raising stock. Rural Retreat, Wythe county, Virginia, is his postoffice address.

SAMUEL H. CASSELL—one of the successful farming residents of Wythe county, was born in this county, on the 16th of October, 1846. He is a son of Joseph and Susan (Wiseley) Cassell, and he married Ceddie P., daughter of Albert and Nancy H. (Wiseley) Haller. She was born in Wythe county, June 8, 1852, they were married in this county, May 30, 1876, and of their union have been born three children: Willie H., January 24, 1879; Joseph D., September 18, 1881; and Samuel H., jr., April 27, 1883. Three brothers of Mr. Cassell, Daniel W., Charles H. and M. B., were soldiers of the late war, in the army of Northern Virginia, and participating in its glorious record. The subject of this sketch was not nineteen years of age when the conflict ended, but had seen one year's service with the veterans of that army. Wytheville, Wythe county, Virginia, is his postoffice address.

WILLIAM MARION COLEY—son of Christopher K. and Lydia (Copenhover) Coley, honored residents of Wythe county, was born in this county October 26, 1858. Here he was married, Josephine A. C. Neff becoming his wife on the 27th of December, 1881. Nettie McNair, born November 8, 1882, and Myrtle Neff, born April 18, 1884, are the children of this union. Josephine, wife of Mr. Coley and daughter of Daniel and Amanda Jane (Scott) Neff, was born in Wythe county, February 27, 1863. Her father was born in Wythe county, her mother in Smyth county, Virginia, and they are now residents of Wythe county. William M. Coley is one of the younger generation of the farmers of Wythe county, and during the winter months of the year gives his time to the profession of teaching. Rural Retreat, Wythe county, Virginia, is his postoffice address.

REV. WILLIAM PATON COOPER—on his father's side of Irish descent, and on his mother's side descended from Scotch ancestry, is of one of the oldest families of Southwest Virginia. His grandfather served in the war of the Revolution, with rank of adjutant-general, and lived to the extreme old age of 104 years. His father was a soldier of the 1812 war, Alexander Cooper, who died in February, 1861. The mother of William P., Elizabeth Cooper her maiden name, died in June, 1876. William P. Cooper was born in Russell county, Virginia, September 21, 1826, and was about eight years old when his parents made their home in Wythe county, where he has lived ever since. In this county, July 23, 1856, he married Eliza Jane, daughter of Mathias and Rachel (Umbarger) Tarter, of this county. She was born in Wythe county, September 17, 1833, her father died here January 6, 1865, and her mother died in 1879. Mr. Cooper resides on a fine farm near Rural Retreat, which he owns and operates in connection with local work in the ministry, preaching regularly every week. He receives his mail at Rural Retreat, Wythe county, Virginia.

THE COALE - COLE FAMILY OF AREA SEWELL"S POINT, VIRGINIA

Contributed by Mrs. Nettie Leitch Major, 5101 River Road, Bethesda, Md., 20016

A branch of the Cole family which migrated from Virginia to Maryland, who were non-conformists (Quakers) settled in Anne Arundel County (West River Meeting) Maryland.

A brief sketch of this family is given in Anne Arundel & Howard Counties by J. D. Warfield, A.M., (1905). Pages 31 relating Quaker persecution in Jamestown, Virginia and migrations into Anne Arundel County, Maryland (1658). The Cole family outlined on pages 133, et seq. Isaac & Andrew

From letter from Emily Knod 108 Friar Drive, Clarksville,TN 37042. She wrote me 29 June 1988 and gave me the following on the battles that some of the Flanagans were in during the Civil War.

I have the complete set of the Official Records of the Civil War & other books. I found the place that Isaac was killed on the 18th of May, 1864. (Isaac Coley, brother to Amanda) The 29th VA was sent on Picket duty towards Proctor's Creek (southside of Drewry's Bluff)The 39th Ill Volunteers brought an ammo train near Drewry's Bluff at nearby Proctor's Creek. Isaac and Andrew arrived at Beech Grove, KY on 17 Jan 1862 and located across the Cumberland River from Mill Springs. Gen.Zollicoffer had only 4,000 effective men to the Union's 12,000. Gen Z. decided to attack at Logan's Crossroads before the Union Army could amass their full force in a concentrated area.

The Rebs started marching north at midnight on Mill Springs road towards Fishing Creek Rd. and Logan's Roads.
A heavy rain was falling and the roads were deeply ruttd and muddy. It took them about 6 hours to March the 9 miles. the 29th TNwas in the rear as a researve. The 28th and 29th Brigadades were attacked by twice their numbers. After 10 minutes of intense of fighting they broke and fell back in disorder and they could not be induced to face the onslaught again. The unequal contest could not be maintained. A retreat was ordered to Mill Springs.

Many of the flintlock muskets were rendered unserviceable because of the rainfall. The dark clouds, rain and the smoke of the firing gun s made visibility near zero at the first line. the firing was constant. The rebs retreated to Mill Springs most of the equipment and supplies had to be abandoned and horses. The Rebs were without food. the fear of starvation was greater than the fear of the Federals. So many man and officers deserted and fled thru the E. TN mountains and to home.

Whe I do to my daughter's home, south of Nashville, I drive over the roads Isaac and Andrew walked to Battle . Isaac and Andrew walked the entire South. Isaac is listed as being hit in the back and chin with a minnie Ball. His P.O. is Stoney Point,Hawkins Co.

ELIGIBILITY CLAUSE

"Any woman is eligible for membership in the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution who is not less than eighteen years of age, and who is descended from a man or woman who, with unfailing loyalty to the cause of American Independence, served as a sailor, or as a soldier or civil officer in one of the several Colonies or States, or in the United Colonies or States, or as a recognized patriot, or rendered material aid thereto; provided the applicant is personally acceptable to the Society." (Constitution, Article III, Section 1.)

*Marriage in every instance in this paper means legal and lawful marriage.
Date of marriage may be substituted for dates of birth and death where such date proves the soldier to have been living during the Revolution and of a suitable age for service.
(Note: Resolution adopted by the twenty-fourth Continental Congress:
Descendants of polygamous marriage are not acceptable as members of this Society.)

ANCESTOR'S SERVICES

My ancestor's services in assisting in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution were as follows:

The Adjutant General's Office, War Department records show that: "JOHN COLLEY served in the Revolutionary War as 'Sergeant'", organization not shown. Also refer to the "Harvey List"(Book located in Atlanta,Ga. Archives), page 411 which states: "Colley, John, Quartermaster Sergeant". His name appears in a receipt dated March 10, 1778 for seven gallons of molasses for the use of 16 men, sick in the barracks". John Colley's name also appears without mention of rank of organization in a receipt dated March 1, 1778 at Savannah, Georgia "for candles for the use of some sick men in their barracks -Captain Smith's Company." The Virginia State Library records show: "The reference to John Colley(Ill. papers D 56) is to a payroll of Captain Brico's Company of Malitia on the expedition under General Clark against the Shaneys 1780." The Virginia State Library Eighth Annual Report of Library Board and Librarian 1910-1911, page 105 shows JOHN COLLEY I. P. D. 56(Ill. papers) Revolutionary Soldier of Virginialist of names. Also refer to "Roster of Revolutionary Soldiers by Ettie Tidwell McCall, pages 3 & 46 (book in Atlanta Archives) as follows: "p. 3 - Colley, John - Revolutionary Soldier-Virginia buried in Lincoln Co. Ga." Comment: Lincoln was cut from Wilkes County, Ga. Refer to p. 46 which states : "John Colley, b. Virginia 1752 d. 1815 Wilkes Co. Ga. married 1780 Sarah France of Henry Co., Va. d. 1833. John Colley was a Revolutionary Soldier of Virginia."

The said JOHN COLLEY

is the ancestor who assisted in establishing American Independence, while acting in the capacity of PRIVATE-CAPTAIN BRISCO'S COMPANY-VIRGINIA Also served as Quartermaster Sergeant as reffer to in the "Harvey List", page 411 - This book is in the Atlanta, Georgia Archives.

I placed a querie in the DAR magazine several years ago, and got a reply from Mrs. John Umberger of Austinsville, Va. Her husband is of this family.
She sent me some pages written by the son of William Marion Coley, son of Christopher Kendrick, son of Francis and Sarah Vaught Coley.
Robert Coley will (1785), names sons William and Francis.
Land records, tax lists, census records and a Gen. Services Admn. file S 3197 were used for his account.
This Coley family was of English origins. I have found in Mass. a Benjamin and Samuel Cooley, immigrants from England. Samuel's descendants spelled the name Coley, But I have found descendants of Benjamin in Halifax Co., N. C.
In GenForum I saw mentioned a book"History of Fairfield, Conn. with lots of Coley info.
I am going to the DAR library in June. I will look for the book.

Getting back to Coley's. I did get the book with Smith Co., Tenn. Wills, but there was no will for Francis Coley, did he die intestate??
This is the only bit of info that I have found from Smith Co., Tenn. in Deeds, Vol 2, 1835 - 1852:
Deed Bk. P, 1 Feb 1837 (p. 480) Frances Coley to James Mathewson a tract of land on Payton's Creek.
Deed Bk. O, 25 Dec 1837 (pp.238-239) Frances Coley to Wm. Nickson a tract of land on Payton's Creek.
Francis died in 1840, so he would have been selling off some of his land???
This is a hard nut to crack. (pardon me, g-g-g-grandfather Francis)

JOHN COLLEY FAMILY BIBLE RECORDS
LETTER TO MISS ANNE WATKINS, 917 OAKDALE ROAD, N. E.
ATLANTA, GEORGIA, a descendant of John Colle

Roster of Revolutionary Soldiers, by Ettie Tidwell McCall, p. 46:

"JOHN COLLEY, B. Va. 1752, d. 1815 Wilkes Co. Ga. m. 1780 Sarah France of Henry Co. Va. who was born 1763, d. 1831. John Colley was a Revolutionary Soldier of Virginia."

(Note: Mrs. McCall states Sarah France Colley's death as 1831, while the Bible records 1833.)

Hello,
I took my trip to the DAR library.
Well, I did find in "Halifax Co, NC Court Minutes, Vol 1 1784 - 1787
AUGUST COURT 1785: The last Will and testament of Robert Coley Exhd and proved by the Oaths Jas Baker and Elizabeth Baker at the same time Francis Coley Qualifyed according to law.
NOVEMBER COURT 1785: Inventory of the Estate of Robert Coley Des'c was Returned on Oath by Francis Cooley the admr and Ordered to be Recorded.
The assumption that Robert was the father of Francis by researchers has had to come from records such as these.
Do you have a copy of the will of Francis Coley died Smith Co, Tenn 1833 ? I believe this Will should be read to see if Francis d 1833 names a son Francis.
I don't believe we have finished chasin' the Coley tale, yet!
Sarah

Posted by Barney Sitz on October 10, 1998 at 01:29:50:

I am a Coley descendant, descended from the Coleys who were in NC prior to 1790. My earliest known ancestor is Washington Coley, born abt 1790 in NC, first found on the 1810 Montgomery Co. NC census. As far as I can tell, the Coleys in this area of NC in the 1790 census were:
Salisbury Dist. Montgomery Co. George, William, Joyce (possibly Jesse but misread?)

In 1800 in Montgomery Co. were William and Jesse. Halifax Co. NC. Charles Coley Sr. and Jr., James Coley, Patsy Coley, Susanna Coley, William Coley. Chatham Co. NC Julius Coley, Warren Co. NC Francis Coley. Sampson Co. NC William Coley.

Washington Coley was in the Montgomery and Stanly Co. NC area until 1840 where he is found in Newton Co. GA. He presumably died sometime after the 1840 census, as I cannot find him in GA in 1850 in GA. It is possible he moved elsewhere after 1840.

Montgomery Co. has had records lost to one or more fires prior to 1840, so I have had difficulty finding information on this family. I am interested in working and sharing info with anyone researching these early North Carolina families. I am also interested in the possible Coley connection between the Coleys in CT and those in NC as mentioned in earlier postings to this forum.
Thanks in advance.

My great grandmother was Jane Coley, b. in Warren co.NC. abt.1824. I saw in the 1850 census of Warren co.NC. Where she was head of household ,age 27, children: Sally N.Coley,7
James A. Coley 6, Elizabeth Coley 3. Jane married my Great grand mother in 1864 in Warren co.NC. He had been in the Civil War.
The 1880 census Nash co.NC. Samuel 70, and Jane 65 ,and Henry age 7[my grand father]In 1904 Jane Coley Williams was signing up for a Widows penison in Nash co.NC. She was 80 years old. She died in 1906. Some one told me in the 1860 census a Callahan man in Warrington,NC [Warren co.] had 2 Coley grandchildren living with him. I haven't found it yet. I didn't find anything abt. the'Coley's or the Williams in the 1860 census. I would like to know if Washington Coley was Jane's first husband,and what happened to the children.Maggie Williams nance of Eden,NC.

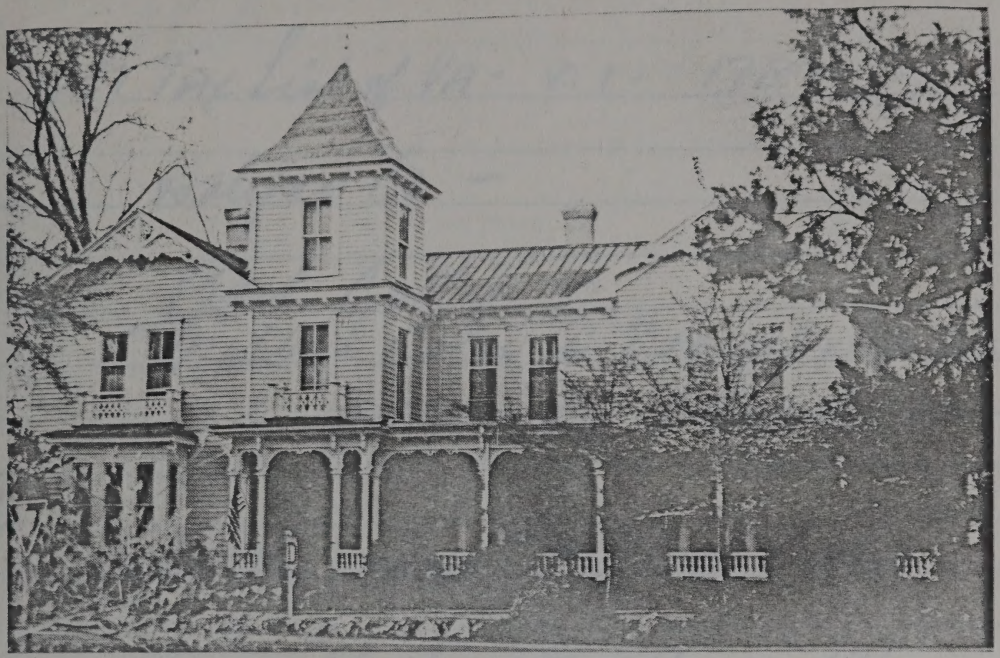
Kettle Creek Chapter of Washington, Georgia, presents



THE CEDARS – indicative of a gracious by-gone era

On top of a high hill in the city of Washington stands "The Cedars," a small gingerbread, castle-like home.

The tract of land on which it stands belonged to the Honorable George Walton who sold it to a Mr. Wingfield and thence to Dr. Poulain who was the personal physician to General LaFayette.

In 1830 it was bought by Francis Colley who built here and who later sold it to his granddaughter, Mary Robert, and her husband, Marshall Mercer Sims. In 1890 they added the 15-room Victorian front to the old house.

The climbing rose (Empress of China) on the porch was planted when the house was built — about 100 years ago. With its wide halls, beautiful mirrors, antiques, parlors, and majestic dining room, "The Cedars" is truly indicative of a gracious and lovely by-gone era.

The Cedars remains in the same family, now belonging to a great-great-granddaughter of Francis Colley and granddaughter of Mary Robert and Marshall Mercer Sims, Mrs. Virginia DeVaughn Peniston.

Dear Vivian,

I keep hoping to get over to the DAR Library again and spend some time on our Coley line. Hopefully, in a few weeks I will. I like to go over with one of my daughters, so whenever she is ready to go!

I hope your foot operation went well. About a year ago, another one of my daughters (I have four) had a bone spur operation on her foot. She used a crutch and a "funny" shoe for at least a month. There's been no problem since.

I have found some nice sketches, that I needed, at the DAR Library, so here's hoping.

Sincerely,

Sara

Dear Vivian,

I do have one question to ask. Why is Francis Coley so hard to trace?

John and Barbara Eichelberger Phillippi were both easy to trace. There are two ladies I have known for years. Recently, I asked one what her maiden name was - Phillippi, and she has a copy of "The Phillippi Family Tree"! The other lady (maiden name Eichelberger) has a book about John George Eichelberger, Barbara Eichelberger Phillippi's father. In the book "Eighteenth Century Emigrants from German-Speaking Lands to North America" by Annette Burgert, sketch 104 is of John George Eichelberger, sketch 103 is of his brother and sketch 105 is of his cousin that moved to S. Carolina.

I have been to the DAR Library, and would like to go again. Saturday, we were in D.C. to see the cherry blossoms and the lawn and garden tour at the White House, but the DAR Library is not open on Saturday's.

I would like a copy of the St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church records. I tried to get a copy once but they were unavaliable. I have been to St. John's Cemetery in Wytheville, Va. and I have a photo of Rufus and Eliza Coley Umberger's stone that I used for birth and death proof for my DAR application. Eliza was born in Smyth Co., Va., Nov 9, 1836 and died May 16, 1902 in Wythe, Co., Va. Rufus was b. Mar. 29, 1822 and d. Oct 19, 1870. On his stone "He died as he lived, a pure up right man", they were my great-grandparents.

From which line of Francis and Sarah Vaught Coley do you decend?

Sincerely,

Sarah C Cowl

Dear Sarah:

You have asked a question that I've asked so many times... Why in the world is it so hard to trace Francis Coley????? I have found Francis Coley(s) clear back to England in the 1600's!! The name seems fairly common.

I don't know of anyone really working on the Coley family, seems that is just in connection with an allied or collateral line. It has always been a goal of sorts for me to carry each line back overseas.....well, this has been accomplished in a very few of my lines but I'm trying. But you know the old saying, don't know if I'll live long enough!

My line to Francis Coley goes like this:

Amanda Jane Coley b1828 VA m Wm. Washington Flanagan. Flanagan was my Mothers' maiden name. I'm stuck on my Flanagans when I lose my 2nd grtgrndfather, Philip Flanagan b 1805 NC, in East TN.

The ladies side of a genealogical chart really has it rough in that they are hard to trace sometimes. But we are lucky that we know Francis is the father of our Eliza and Amanda.

I hope to be glued to the computer in a few days, putting my records on my Family Roots program that I've had for years. I haven't done much toward putting my information onto diskettes but the next few weeks will see if I can get into the habit of doing just that on a regular basis.

I am scheduled to have a bone spur removed from the top of my right foot on Wed and also to clean out a joint that is being filled with deposits and giving me pain. After he sees what is inside, the Dr. says that if all goes well, I will just be on a cane for a few weeks but there is the possibility that the joint will have to be fused so then I'll be looking toward 3 months on crutches!! This I do not want to have happen. In my youth, I was a ballet dancer and so this seems to be the results of toeshoes. Seems that lots of athletes have osteo-arthritis in their later years.

Dear Sarah

You have asked a question that I've asked so many times:
Why in the world is it so hard to trace Francis Coley???
I have found Francis Coley's sister back in England in the 1600's!! The name seems fairly common.

I don't know of anyone really working on the Coley family, except that is just in connection with an allied or collateral line. It has always been a goal of mine to be able to carry each line back overseas.....well, this has been accomplished in a very few of my lines but I'm trying. But you know the old saying, don't know it's live long enough!

My line to Francis Coley goes like this:

Amanda Jane Coley b1828 VA & Wm. Washington Flanagan,
Flanagan was my Mother's maiden name. I'm stuck on my Flanagans when I lose my 2nd great-grandfather, Philip Flanagan b 1805 NC, in East TN.

The ladies side of a genealogical chart really has it tough in that they are hard to trace sometimes. But we are lucky that we know Francis is the father of our Eliza

I hope to be glued to the computer in a few days, putting my records on my family tree program that I've had for possibility that the joint will have to be fused so then I'll be looking toward 3 months on crutches! This I do not want to have happen. In my youth, I was a ballet dancer and so this seems to be the results of torn knees.

Seems that lots of athletes have osteoarthritis in their later years.

Anyway, hopefully I'll be able to move around just enough to arrange all these records as I know that they should be arranged. I bought this computer years ago with this in mind but then I got so busy doing other things....

If I find anything on the Coleys/Phillippis/Eichelberger buried in my files, I'll let you know!

Please keep in touch as this is the only way we can put all these pieces of the puzzle together.

Sincerely,

17 October 1991

Dear Vivian,

When I wrote you some 5-6 weeks ago I thought I would be back in Wythe Co. VA about this time but no such luck. The old ticker has started to act up once again so will have to stay close to home until things calm down. I hope it will only be 2-3 weeks for I do want to cover ground in not only Wythe Co. but also visit Kingsport TN and then Cocke & jefferson Cos. in TN. Yes, my Francis ancestors were located in TN. They moved into Cocke Co. TN prior to 1820 from Rutherford Co. NC. Members of the family located themselves in Cocke, Jefferson & Sevier Cos. One member of the family located in Marion Co. TN where family members can still be found both in TN and GA. The Marion Co. branch also created quite a colony in Osage Co. MO. In and around Newport TN I suspect I have enough kin folk whose names would fill a phone book. My oldest ancestor on the Francis line is an Edward Francis who can be located in Rutherford Co. NC as early as Mar 1779 and who prior to being found in NC is known to have been located in VA. Edward had a family of at least 5 sons and 7 daus with the names of 4 sons and 4 daus being known. Two sons, David (my gg-gf) and Joseph are known to have been born in VA with Joseph being born in July 1773 and David being born earlier. There are several people like my self who have been trying for several years to learn something about Edward and his family prior to being found in NC but to this date, no such luck. The Miller Francis you mention is no kin but I am familiar with the name and that of his brother Woodson. They are from a family that was located in Brunswick-Lunenburg-Charlotte Co. VA which family migrated there from PA.

With regard to the Vaught book I purchased back in July, it appears to sold out according to latest word I received from the Vaught Assoc. Rather than me trying to tell you what was in the latest Vaught newsletter I've made a copy of it for you which is enclosed.

About the Zion Lutheran Church I've enclosed a copy of a portion of a Wythe Co. map which locates that church together with a couple of others. When and if you visit Wythe Co. you can obtain a very nice map of both Wythe Co. and Wytheville at the Wytheville Chamber of Commerce. I stumbled on that fact while in the Wytheville library and immediately paid a visit to the office of the Chamber of Commerce which was very close by.

Being that it is approaching the close of October I'll now sign off by saying Happy Halloween to you.

Dear Jim:

Doggone, it was good to hear from you! Don't talk to me about the years flashing by...I just had another, I repeat another birthday. I kepp telling my family that I'm not having anymore, but thgy just won't listen.

Before I forget, get me one of those Vaught Assoc. books, please. Pause while I put in a new ribbor.....now.....didn't have it all in like it was supposed to be.

I really do want one of those Vaught Books. Sounds good. I bought Carsons book on Ky that had the good section on the Va/ogt family. I'll reimburse you, ntch.

Now to thanking you for those beautiful pictures!! Wish I could have been there too. Your pic of W. W. Flanagan's stone is much better than mine. Many thanks that was just most thoughtful. James W. Flanagan I can't place right now. But yes, I do keep pics of tombstones. My stay in Wythe Co. was just too short. Think that I will just go again and stay a few days and roam around. Wish the old world had not turned so bad and scary or I would attempt it by myself. Houston is certainly spooky nowadays, believe me!

Is the Zion Lutheran Church in Crockett also? I want to go there too, if I live long enough.

Going through my records, you know we have been through this before,don't you?, I received this record from Diane Martin. I started corresponding with her in 1980 and then it stopped in 1984. All her family was from VA and in our area and at this time she still had elderly relatives still alive and they were giving her their memories, pics and etc. Where this record came from, I don't know...it appeared in form as if it were a Bible record but I've gone through all her old correspondence and there isn't an explanation of what or where this came from. If I can ever get in touch with her again, I'll ask her about it...i.e. the month and day of Francis Coley's birth. Also you had a question mark after the Thomas. Diane also came up with this being his full name because two of Francis' children on their marriage licenses listed their parents as Thomas and Sally Coley. There is a Thomas Coley in Smythe co. in 1850 and his wife is named Catherine. So it isn't carved in stone, but at this point in time, we think that he had a middle name of Thomas and used it at times. 'Course Diane's family in VA were the Groseclose family which entertwines with ours.

We are off for a little vacation to see our daughter in OK day after tomorrow but I did want to answer your most thoughtful gift of pictures and as ever I always enjoy hearing from you. Keep hunting!

Dear Vivian,

On looking in my file of letters I find it has been 4 1/2 years since we last corresponded. The years go rushing by anymore and most anything seems to have happened just yesterday. Anyways, aside from the rush of time I was in Wythe Co., Va for a few days the last weekend in July. There was a VAUGHT family reunion held there July 24-25 which I attended in hope of being able to learn for sure which of the two sons of John Paul Vaught, Andrew or Caspar, was father to Christly Vaught the father of Sarah Vaught who married Francis Coley. I found that nothing in terms of documented proof has as yet been found but that best indicators all point to Andrew which I most certainly agree with. While there I purchased a 429 page book entitled, Vaught Assoc. of the United States, Vol. I, Descendants of Christley Vaught. It was accompanied by an index of 153 pages. A most pleasing purchase.

Doesn't.

While there I visited the Zion Lutheran Church on Saturday in a tour but knew I did not do well at all in taking pictures so on Sunday with a different lens and film for my camera I made a return visit. I obtained what I consider to be some nice pictures and am enclosing for you some duplicates. Have no idea as to whether or not you collect pictures of tombstones of your kin but hope you do. The b & w picture showing the stone of W.W. Flanagan was taken at Kings Grove Church Cemetery. The name of Amanda Jane was also on the W.W. Flanagan stone but that picture was totally out of focus. I don't know who the Sarah J. M. wife of Jas. W. Flanagin might have been but since it was also in the Kings Grove Church Cemetery thought it might be some kin of W.W. and so of interest to you.

While reviewing your letters I noted a date in the very first letter you wrote me that for some reason never fully registered until now. Your letter stated that Francis Thomas (?) Coley was born 15 May 1793. Where my I ask did you ever locate the month and day of his birth?

Also, here are a couple corrections for the family group sheet of Francis Coley.

- Christopher Coley, from m. records you indicate C.K. Coley was born in Smyth Co (1831). This cannot be correct as Smyth Co. was not created until 1832.
- Jefferson F. Coley: m. 14 Feb 1836, this date you indicate came from film which you viewed at Salt Lake City. It cannot be correct as in 1836 Jefferson Coley was 3 yrs of age. Also, the film record states his age to have been 23 yrs and so being born in 1833 the year of marriage would have been 1856.

I may be in Wythe Co. again in 6 to 8 weeks and if so will try to obtain better photos at the Kings Grove Church for you.

Sincerely

Jim Francis

Dear Vivian,

Since there is no question but what we are cousins I am taking the liberty of addressing you as Vivian. After about seven years of trying to locate a member of the Coley family who is also interest-in the origins of the family one has turned up. I must however admit that I did locate a Fred Coley in Waynesboro, Virginia some six years ago who has provided me with most of the data I have on the family of Francis Coley and Sarah Vaught. Fred will be 84 this year and at the moment I do not have his address. He sold his home about the close of 1983 and with his wife was to have moved into a home for the elderly. Something went wrong however andat Christmas last year he and his wife were temporarily living in a motel. I've been waiting for some time to hear from him but as yet he has not informed me of his whereabouts.

To show you where I fit in the family I've enclosed a few items and you will note that it is my mother who is the Coley. Also, you will note that your Amanda Jane and my g-gf Thomas K. were the two oldest children of Francis Coley and Sarah Vaught.

Regarding the birthplace of Francis Coley being Halifax County, N.C., that information comes from his death certificate. I do not have a copy of the certificate but Fred obtained a copy from the Virginia Bureau of Vital Statistics. That death certificate was also the means whereby it was learned that Francis Coley's father was also named Francis.

I've had considerable trouble trying to come up with answers in Halifax Co. Halifax Co. and the surrounding area had a considerable number of Coley families residing there in the 1700rds and as yet I haven't came up with sufficient information to sort them out. Fred reached some conclusions as to which family was ours and where they had come from but his conclusions were all based on conjecture and I've learned that conclusions of that nature do nothing but lead to trouble at some point. Anyways, I have some data that I'll start getting together so as to send along to you so you can see for yourself what I am talking about.

For the moment I can only say it was a tremendous pleasure to open your letter and find I had found a cousin. There is no doubt that I can add a bit of information to your store of Coley data and I know you can do the same for me. I know nothing of Sarah Vaught's parents other than their names and the date of their marriage. I've read a lot of material concerning SW Virginia and census reports but could never come up with anything that sorted out the Vaught andBaugh families. From your letter I take it you have that information.

Till the next time, continued happy hunting.

Sincerely,

Jim Francis

Dear 'Cousin' Jim:

How very nice to find a Coley cousin!! I must confess I haven't really done that much research of this line being truly more interested in the Flanagans....my mother's maiden name. Doggone Irishmen are the most frustrating to research. All I know is that my Philip Flanagan b ca 1805 in N.C. is the father of William W. Flanagan who married Amanda Jane Coley.

By the way, how is the name pronounced? As in Colic? or cooing? It is spelled Coley,Cooly,Colley in the records so it will be good to know just how your Mother pronounced it. Then, of course, I found Francis'marriage record to Sarah Vaught and that was spelled, Coale!!

I'm afraid that you have the wrong parents for our Sarah(Sally) Vought/Vogt/Vaught. In Christly Vaught's will, he names 'my daughter Sally who married Francis Coley'. Christly was b ca 1[illegible] probably in Augusta Co., Va. d. Wythe Co., will probated 9 Aug 1830. His wife was Elizabeth Phillippi, who died after 1828. Her father was John Phillippi b ca 1736 in Pa. John married Barbara Eichelberger in 2 Aug 1757. John died 21 Oct 1800. This info was obtained from Rev. War Service records, altho on the DAR application #634701 Chrisly's wife is not mentioned.and the book described below.

If you can get a copy of They Came to Kentucky by Alberta Carson Kirkwood. This is on the Carson family but she has quite a bit on the Vogts/Vaughts and Phillippi families. She has corrected and updated Judge Edgar S. Vaught's book written many years ago.

I had done some 'surmising' about this Coley family primarially from the census records. I have Francis b ca 1800 with perhaps brothers, Thomas, John T. and Joseph. Their father,(from age groupings) was possibly Thomas Coley, Sr. of Washington Co., Va. with two men being perhaps his brothers, Thedious Cooly of John Cooly.

I also had our Francis with the middle name of Thomas. Seems like a correspondent (Flanagan cuz.) wrote to me that one of her kin still in Wythe Co. had told her that.(Have to find that record later)

I'm sending a copy of the marriage of Nancy M. Coley and James M. Miller. My grandparents Flanagan lived with them the last days of their lives.

I have these additions/corrections to your family group sheet;

child # 2 Amanda Jane Coley m 3 Apr 1851
#4 was b in Smythe Co. (from m. records) Conf. Soldier
#5 m 14 Feb 1836 Wythe Co. Conf. Sold.

#9 m or license date 8 Nov 1865 Wythe Co.
#10 Issac was killed at Drury's Bluff in Va. according to some records we have at the lIbrary. I have not seen his service rec.

My husband and I are planning a trip ithe latter part of Sept and first part of Oct. I plan to drive through Smythe and Wythe Cos. and maybe I'll be able to pick up some more information. Really not doing a great deal of research but did want to set foot in that area where my ancestors has once been.

Really must close this for now. It is getting late and I'm terribly sleepy. Hope this letter makes sense. Didn't mean to let this much time go by before I answered your letter. I work full time at Clayton Genealogical Library here in Houston and some times when I get home, I just flat don't want to think anymore about genealogy!!

I eagerly await your letter. Are the Coleys Irish or German? What are the family stories?

Most sincerely,

Dear Bobbie:

Apologies for the slow answer, your letter was misplaced!

I'm in the midst of retiring and things are rather hectic.

I have very little on my Coley line;

My Amanda Jane Coley was b ca 1828 in Smythe Co.,VA
m 17 Mar 1851 into my Mother's line,
Wm. Washington Flanagan

Amanda's father was Francis b ca 1798-1801 NC
mother was Sarah (Sally) Vaught(Bogt)

The Flanagan/Coley/Vaught families seemed to be in VA for quite some time, either in Smythe Co or Wythe Cos, VA.
Francis and Sally's children married into the;
Arney, Copenhaver, Widener, Litz, Umberger,Wisley,Miller families.

You see how scarce things are with the Coley line. I find a Francis Coley in Halifax Co., NC with a son that might be my Francis but this will take more time and research.

Glad to find another Coley researcher. Do keep in touch and your records will go into my files and computer, as soon as I get myself officially retired!

Good Luck,

Dear Vivian,

I came across your name etc. in the Family Register in regards to your Coley ancestors.

Sorry I don't have a positive connection at this time, but felt if enough information was shared, that we might put the big puzzle together for a healthy family tree.

I would appreciate receiving any information concerning Coley ancestors and descendants. Thanks in advance for your trouble.

Sincerely,

Bobbie

Dear Jim:

Here I am, home ill with a sore throat, and trying to play catch up with my correspondence. I just have too many irons in the fire, but I can't help it!!

Your letter was so welcome last month. I had been wondering about you and how you were and how the research was going. Then the news about your Mother, daughter and yourself were having health problems.....of course you haven't had time to dig around hunting old dead folks!!

Your latest 'funny' to me was one that really struck a chord.. two of my staff members on the Library have talked of nothing but getting their 'family reunion' organized etc. We put the article up on the Library's Bulletin Board for the patrons to see and read. It went over with a bang...thanks for sending it.

A sense of humour is soo essential in this crazy world that we live in nowadays and my hat is off to you, Jim. You have got a load to carry, my heart goes out to you. I can identify with what you are going through....cancer is not a stranger in this household nor in my family. May the good lord give you and your family strength to bear all that is ahead.

I haven't done any real research in quite some time. I'm still trying to put my 'family' into the computer but what with working and trying to run a house, I'm not too sure that I will live long enough to get it all in!! Ha Ha. Yes I will. Too many interruptions, that just couldn't be avoided, like my husband having both eyes operated on for cataracts. He is doing so well, he is one of the lucky ones. I believe that if he couldn't read, it would be the end of him.

Must bring this to a close. Just wanted to let you know that you and yours are in my prayers. Do keep in touch when you can.

Most sincerely,

Mrs. Vivian H. Jordan

Dear Vivian:

Some time ago I sent you a cartoon that related to genealogy which you seemed to enjoy receiving for which reason I have something enclosed for you in a related vein. Hope you like it.

Have not done much during the past year relating to ancestor hunting due to some health problems of my mother, my oldest daughter and myself. I finally wound up with a six by-pass heart operation in April, have been taking my mother to a hospital and a couple of Drs. on a regular basis for cancer. This is her fourth episode with cancer and she is doing very well. I wish I could say the same for my daughter Christine. She had cancer in her nasal pharnax area some twelve years ago and it recurred early in 1986. We have her with us for with three children in school and a working husband she couldn't get proper care at her home in Dayton so we are looking after her. Her prospects are not too good.

There is no question but what I shall return to ancestor hunting and if any goodies turn up I shall so inform you.

Sincerely,

Jim Francis

Dear Mrs Jordan,

I recently ran across your Francis Coley entry while researching at my local LDS library. I am a direct descendent of Francis Coley (or Talley), Sr of Halifax Co., NC. Halifax Co., NC borders VA on its northern frontier.

Francis Coley, Sr was born c1740. He was the son of John Coley, Sr and his wife Martha---. The 1786 State Census of NC lists a Francis Coley in District #6, p.2 Ten children may be surmised, using the 1800 and 1810 Census of Chatham Co., NC. Francis Coley moved there around 1790 and began buying land. Possibly the son listed as being born circa 1785 is your Francis Coley, who married Sarah Vaught.

My descent from Francis Colley, Sr. is as follows:

Julius Coley(B.c1765)>Julius Braxton Coley,Sr(1790-1859)>Katherine Coley(1836-1902)M. Michael M Holt>Elizabeth A Holt(1856-1919)M. Michael A Bowman>William Daniel Bowman(1880-1946)>James Fred Bowman(B.1927)> Zebulon Lynn Bowman(B.1953)

I would be very interested in hearing your comments on the above.

There is also a Francis Coley in Williamson Co. TX in 1900 page 33 and I think ED 131.

As of yet, I haven't been able to verify Thomas J. Coley in 1860, 1870 or 1880, he poss. married in 1877 to Martha Jane (Stephens). T.J. parents are suppose to be John and Sara or Jesse and Sara Coley.

T.J. Coley's wife was born in Tenn., so you see I have found Coley's in GA-Ala-Tn-and TX and some from NC & SC.

Dear Jim:

Season's Greetings! Hope this coming New Year will be just perfect for you and yours.

As a follow up on your questions about trying to find a Coley family history. I wrote to the Halifax County Library in Halifax, N. C. and received a very nice letter back but no real information. They knew of noone doing Coley family research nor did they have any records that someone working on the name might have given to the Library.

Believe that I've mentioned that I'm in contact with a Flanagan cousin that is just doing wonderful work on tracking down and filling in the gaps so far as my Flanagans are concerned. So naturally, the Coley line should get some of her attention.

She seems to have some connections with people of the various surnames that we are interested in, back in Marion and in that area of VA. So I'm very hopeful that she will turn up something. I will, of course, let you know anything that she turns up.

Just wanted to touch base and tell you to keep in touch.

Dear Mr. Francis:

I received your name and address from the Everton"s Root Cellar extraction.

You appear to be working on the same Francis Coley that I am having difficulties with! Altho I had not placed my Francis Coley in Halifax Co., N. C.

Here is my lineage:

Amanda Jane Coley b 1828 in Va. m..Wm. W. Flanagan. Her father, from census and his will is Francis Thomas? Coley b 15 May 1798 in N. C. He m in 1824 Sarah (Salley) Vaught. He died 25 Sept of 1874 in Wythe Co., Va.

Are we on the same F. Coley?

I would be most happy to exchange information. I have quite a bit on the Vaught/Vogt family but not too much on the Coleys.

How did you place him in Halifax County?

I enclose a SASE and am really excited to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Dear Jim:

I've had this xeroxing done for you for some time and just now getting around to writing to answer your questions and then mailing. I am really not doing something right because I'm forever behind, it seems!

It is obvious that we are working either with another Jefferson F. Coley or else he was quite a young man.

I've checked, in our Library, the obvious references when asked about family histories being written. The Library of Congress catalog with Supplement, New England Hist.& Gen.Register's Lending Library catalog, DAR Library Catalog...none of above lists a Coley Genealogy 'of Halifax County'.....I am in the process, today of writing to the Halifax County Library and the Library in Enfield,N.C. (Halifax Co.). We had stopped in Enfield on our recent trip and I had looked at a telephone directory. There were a few Coleys listed so I have written to these individuals. Maybe something will come of this effort.

I agree 1000% with your statement that Fred Coley's researcher has 'assummed' toooo much. I have found Francis Coleys in England, in the 15 Century!! It will interesting to see just why this name has persevered ed so long down through the years.

The Phillippi family genealogy, I got in Wythevill, VA. Please be aware that I did not xerox all of the book. The authors were maily interested in the Indiana etc. branches, after they left VA. So that is why I just copied what I did. Hope this helpassome. Usually it just confuses things more!! Ha.

Must run. Keep in tough, we'll lick this yet.

Sincerely,

J. A. Francis Jr.

Dear Vivian,

As always it is with pleasure that I receive a letter that provides new information for my store of data or corrects information already on hand and you have done both. I've been sailing along for quite some time knowing that Henry Vaught and Ester Baugh were parents to Sarah Vaught and here you turn up with proof positive that tells me otherwise. This bit of information will certainly surprise Fred Coley for he was the source of my information. The name Phillippi is of interest for just down the road a short distance is Phillipi Road which was named after a family that has lived in the area for many years. As a matter of fact they still maintain a farm amid land they sold off for a Westinghouse plant, several manufacturing and warehouse facilities together with a portion of I270. I will be checking with the State Genealogical Library and the Ohio Historical Library as to whether the book "They Came to Kentucky" is available in one or the other.

I've never spent much time delving into the Vaught family but imagine they could be of interest for I have notes on several of them in Montgomery, Wythe, Grayson and Botetourt Counties. One of them, an affidavit by Christopher Philippie states Christiann Vaught and Elizabeth were his sisters. A most intriguing note states that George, John and David Vault (Vaught) were found guilty of crimes against the Commonwealth, Montgomery Co., Va., April 1779. Someday I'll check that one out a bit so as to learn just what kind of mischief they got into.

Enclosed for you are the following:

1. The first 23 pages of Fred Coley's history of the family. There are an additional 50 pages relating to descendants which if you would like to have I will have reproduced.

2. Copies of work by Mrs Murphy Barnette relating to N.C. Coleys'. Fred Coley employed the services of this lady and then permitted me to copy her work. I won't say they cover everything she did for him for his letters make me think otherwise but I did not press the point with him as I was most appreciative of that which I did receive.

I do have some other Coley items but I'll have to dig them out and send them in a subsequent letter.

For me to make sense of this Coley material I'll have to start reviewing it all again. It has been at least three years since I've put time on it and I'm a bit rusty to say the least. My time the past three years has been mostly spent on the Francis and Click/Cleek lines though I'll have to admit it hasn't turned up anything new and startling.

Regarding the other Coley family members you turned up in Wythe Co., Va. I also found those people but according to Fred they were not related. As yet I will totally accept that thought for odds are too great for things to be otherwise.

Dear Vivian,

As always it is with pleasure that receive a letter that provides new information (or more of data enforcement information already on hand and two more dogs both. I've been waiting along for quite some time now ing that Henry Wright and Zabe Peach were persons to Sarah Ya and there was born an with proof positive that tells me otherwise. This bit of information will certainly surprise Fred Coley for he was the source of my information. The name Phillibut is of interest for just down the road a short distance is Phillibut Road which was named after a family that has lived in the area for many years. My mother of Fort Lane still maintains a farm and land they sold off for a Westinghouse plant, several manufacturing and warehouse facilities together with a portion of 1270. I will be checking with the State Genealogical Library and the Vital Statistics Library as to whether the book "Bay Cane to Hickory" is available in one of the other.

I've never spent much time delving into the Veach family but leaving there could be of interest for I have spoken on several of them in Montgomery, Wythe, Grayson and Coshocton Counties. One of them, an artist by the name of Stephen Phillips stating Elizabeth Vaught and Elizabeth were his mother. A most interesting role played that George, John and David Veach (Veach) were found guilty of crimes against the Commonwealth, Montgomery Co., VA. April 1779. Someday I'll check that one out & it so as to learn just what kind of mischief they got into.

Included for you are the following:

1. The first 23 pages of Fred Coley's history of the family. There are an additional 50 pages pertaining to descendants which if you would like to have I will have reproduced.

2. Copies of work by Mrs Murphy Burnette relating to M.C. Coley's. Fred Coley employed the services of this lady and then permitted me to copy her work. I won't say they cover everything she did for him for his letters make me think otherwise but I did not press the point with him. I was most apprehensive of that when I did receive.

I do have some other Coley items but I'll have to dig them out and send them in a subsequent letter.

For me to make sense of this Coley material I'll have to start reviewing it all again. It has been at least three years since I've put this on it and I'm a bit rusty to say the least. My time the past three years has been mostly spent on the Francis and Click/Clack lines though I'll have to admit it hasn't turned up anything new and startling.

Regarding the other Coley family members you turned up in Wythe Co., Va. I also found those people but according to Fred they were not related. As yet I will probably accept that thought for other's too great for things to be observed.

I do have a couple questions with regard to your letter. Christly Vaught b ca 1732 and his will probated 9 Aug 1830. Are those dates correct? If so, Christly was certainly a long lived individual. Also, Jefferson F. Coley m 14 Feb 1836. Could that year date be 1863?

Regarding Coley nationalty my only knowledge is that according to Fred they are English. I can believe thatfor to date every Coley whose origins I've come across has been English. As to your thoughts on researching Irishmen being a frustrating experience I will agree. According to my mother all family conversations dealing with ancestry led to their Irish origins. As yet I have not found a single Irish person in her family. Everyone so far has turned out to have German origins. My mother can hardly accept the fact no one is Irish for as she puts it "her folks certainly knew what they were talking about". If it turns out there is an Irishman in my mother's family it just has to be the Coley line for of my four grt-grandparents on her side of the family Arney, Click and Tranbarger are guaranteed to be of German origin.

From my mother and hearing conversations in years past between her and other family members I picked up stories of land grants, large farms, wealthy people, Civil War losses, gold rush year disappearances and such. In all these stories as I delved into them I found a kernal of truth that somehow had been changed as time passed so that it no way really told what happened. Mother can't quite figure out how after all these years one can take bits and pieces and say what really happened was thus andso.

It is nice to know a professional librarian is in the family andin a genealogical library at that. I can however well understand your wanting to cast genealogical endeavors aside once you get home of an evening. Sitting in the State Library as I have done for so many hours I've come to learn you must have patience and tact to work in such a place. I didn't know there were so many people in the world who didn't know how to use a library unless led around by the hand.

Before closing I'll add that since last writing you I sent to the Virginia Bureau of Vital Statistics and now have applications to obtain death certificates for Francis Coley and Sarah Vaught. I thought it about time I had copies. When they arrive I'll make copies for you.

Sincerely,

Jim T.

DEAR JIM:

HOW DO YOU LIKE THIS HUGE PRINT ELEMENT THAT I HAVE FOR MY TYPEWRITER? FORGOT I HAD IT ON, BUT JUST DON'T HAVE THE TIME TO CHANGE RIGHT NOW. I'VE BEEN TRYING TO GET MY "PROBLEM NOTEBOOK" THAT I ALWAYS TAKE ON TRIPS PUT TOGETHER, UPDATED ETC. AND THIS LARGE PRINT IS VERY HANDY.

I HAVE JUST A MONTH TO GET MY SELF TOGETHER, MY NOTES ON WHAT I WOULD LIKE TO DO AS WE GO THROUGH GA., S.C., N.C. AND VA. I'M REALLY GOING TO VA. TO SEE WHERE THE FLANAGAN AND IN-LAWS WERE. REALLY LOOKING FORWARD TO IT, BUT I HAVE SUCH A MENTAL LIST OF PLACES AND THINGS THAT I WANT TO SEE AND DO, I HOPE THAT I GET AT LEAST HALFT OF THEM ACCOMPLISHED.

THERE WAS A LETTER TO YOU IN MY MACHINE WHEN THIS SECOND ONE ARRIVED WITH THE DEATH RECORDS FOR FRANCIS AND SARAH. PLUS THAT BEAUTIFUL CARTOON!! I LOVED IT! I'M TAKING IT TO THE LIBRARY TODAY TO SHOW THE STAFF AND I CAN GUARANTEE THAT IT WILL BE ALL OVER THIS END OF THE COUNTRY BEFORE THE WEEK IS OUT. THANKS A MILLION FOR THE RECORDS AND THE LAUGH.

YOU HAVEN'T SAID IF YOUR SEARCH FOR THEY CAME TO KENTUCKY BOOK HAS BORN FRUIT, I WILL BE MOST HAPPY TO XEROX THE VAUGHTS ETC. FOR YOU. LET ME KNOW.

REALLY HAVEN'T CHECKED MY VAUGHT RECORDS TO SEE IF I MISTYPED OR SOMETHING A DATE RE YOUR QUESTION 'CHRISTLY VAUGHT B CA 1732 AND HIS WILL DATED (PROBATED) 9 AUG 1830'. MY FIRST THOUGHT WHEN I READ YOUR LETTER WAS TO SAY THAT WILLS WERE NOT NECESSARILY PROBATED IMMEDIATELY AFTER A DEATH AS IT IS DONE NOW DAYS. TOO MUCH TROUBLE OR SOMETHING TO HAVE IT REGISTERED...SO THEY WAITED UNTIL IT WAS CONVENIENT OR WHEN THE HEIRS HAD TO SELL PROPERTY... THEN THEY HAD TO PROVE THEY HAD THE RIGHT TO SELL. BUT I WILL CHECK THOSE DATES.

A QUICK LOOK AT MY FAMILY GROUP SHEET SHOWS THE MARRIAGE DATE THAT I WROTE YOU, I TYPED CORRECTLY. THE MARRIAGE DATE FOR "JEFFERSON E. COLEY, 23 WYTHE CO., VA. AND MARY WIDMORE, WYTHE CO., VA. 14 FEB 1836)...THOMAS AND SARAH COLEY WITNESSES." THIS RECORD CAME FROM A FILM I VIEWED IN SALT LAKE CITY, IN 1981...OF WYTHE CO., VA. MARRIAGES #8160 ...ALSO FOR YOUR RECORDS..#032568, MARRIAGES OF MECKLENBERG CO., VA. THOMAS COLEY AND SALLEY TUCKER, M. MAR 1800 (THESE WERE MINISTER'S RETURNS)

I REALLY MUST GO THROUGH ALL THESE RECORDS THAT I HAVE AND PUT THEM IN SOME ORDER. FINDING YOU HAS PEAKED MY INTEREST IN THE COLEYS ONCE AGAIN...I'VE NEGLECTED THEM FOR TOO LONG.

I'M GOING TO XEROX SOME WILLS AND THINGS THAT YOU MAY NOT HAVE. HAVE TO RUN TO WORK NOW. IS THERE ANYTHING IN PARTICULAR THAT YOU WANT TO HAVE ME LOOK FOR IN N. C. OR VA. RE THE COLEYS??

Dear Jim:

How do you like this huge print element that I have for my typewriter? Forgot I had it on, but just don't have the time to change right now. I've been trying to get my "problem notebook" that I always take on trips put together...updated etc. and this large print is very handy.

I have just a month to get my self together, my notes on what I would like to do as we go through Ga., S.C., N.C. and Va. I'm really going to Va. to see where the Flanagan and in-laws were. Really looking forward to it, but I have such a mental list of places and things that I want to see and do. I hope that I get at least half of them accomplished.

There was a letter to you in my machine when this second one arrived with the death records for Francis and Sarah. PLUS that beautiful cartoon!! I loved it! I'm taking it to the library today to show the staff and I can guarantee that it will be all over this end of the country before the week is out. Thanks a million for the records and the laugh.

You haven't said if your search for They Came T o Kentucky book has born fruit. I will be most happy to xerox the Vaughts etc. for you. Let me know.

Really haven't checked my Vaught records to see if I mistyped or something a date re your question 'Christly Vaught b ca 1752 and his will dated (probated) 9 Aug 1830'. My first thought when I read your letter was to say that wills were not necessarily probated immediately after a death as it is done now days. Too much trouble or something to have it registered...so they waited until it was convenient or when the heirs had to sell property... then they had to prove they had the right to sell. But I will check those dates.

A quick look at my family group sheet shows the marriage date that I wrote you, I typed correctly. The marriage date for "Jefferson F. Coley,23 W Vthe Co.,Va. and Mary Widmore, Wythe Co.,Va. 14 Feb 1836.", Thomas and Sarah Coley witnesses." This record came from a film I viewed in Salt Lake City, in 1981, of Wythe Co.,Va. Marriages $8160 ...also for your records..#032568, Marriages of Eckleenberg Co.,Va. Thomas Coley and Salley Tucker, m. Mar 1800 (these were minister's returns)

I really must go through all these records that I have and put them in some order. Finding you has peaked my interest in the Coleys once again...I've neglected them for too long.

I'm going to xerox some wills and things that you may not have. Have to run to work now. Is there anything in particular that you want to have me look for in N. C. or Va. re the Coleys??

Dear Vivian,

Finally getting around to replying to your letter of August 14 and so by this time suspect that you have made your trip through the several states you mentioned and can only hope that you had a successful and enjoyable trip.

Many thanks for the will and other papers relating to our Wythe County Coley family. Also the Goochland Co. court papers of 1746 clamping down on that Francis Coley's wife Elizabeth. My only acquisition of new data has been a copy of Mrs Madge Heldreth Pope's application for membership in the DAR based on her relationship to Christly Vaught. Since the application listed all the children of Christly Vaught and Elizabeth Phillippi together with their spouses I've sent those names to a couple cousins in Wythe Co. in hopes they might turn up an up till now unknown cousin or two. I checked locally for a copy of the book "They Came to Kentucky"by Alberta Carson Kirkwood but found none available and a computer search says the only copy in an Ohio library is in Cincinnati. At the moment I don't feel in the mood to drive that distance to run down the book so if it isn't too much troube would appreciate your making copies of the pertinent pages for me.

There is a book entitled "Early Lutheran Baptisms and Marriages in Southeastern Pennsylvania - The Records of John Casper Stoever from 1730 to 1779" published in 1896 and then just this year reprinted by the Genealogical Publishing Co. Everytime a new surname has turned up in my family I've gone to our State Library and gone through the book once again to see what I might turn up and have been pleasantly surprised several times. With the new edition having an index I recently acquired a copy and in checking through it found several Phillipi's and Eichelberger's. One in particular was the marriage of Johannes Philippy to Maria Eva Barbara Eichelberger at Warwick, Lancaster Co., Pa. on 2 Aug 1757. I know you had this date but the place and seemingly full and correct names may be new to you.

In your August 14 letter you answered a couple question I raised but I must say the film you viewed at Salt Lake just has to be in error. Jefferson F. Coley could not have been married in 1836 as he was only three years old at the time. Still suspect 1863 to be the proper date

Being a librarian in a genealogical library may enable you to come up with the answer to a question I've raised a couple times. Some time ago I was told by Fred Coley there was a book entitled "The Coley Family of Halifax County, North Carolina" though he also stated he had never seen a copy. I wrote letters to a couple societies in Halifax Co. asking if they might know of such a book and enclosed SASE in each instance but never received replies. Do you have a thought on how to determine whether or not such a book does exist? From the bit of data I sent to you it is evident that Halifax Co. and the surrounding area had several Coley families and to unravel them is, I believe, going to take information we haven't as yet come across.

Dear Vivian,

In Fred Coley's history of the Coley Family you may recall that he states he is of the opinion that Francis Coley (Revolutionary War Soldier, Pension File #S-3197) was the father of our Wythe Co. Francis Coley. It may be that Fred's assumption is correct but I have seen nothing that ties the two together other than the name and that both were in Halifax Co. at some point in time. For your records I am enclosing a copy of the Revolutionary War Francis Coley's pension application together with my translation of the same.

I have no idea how far you have delved into Coley families in the past but I did do some digging at one time and the surprising thing to me was the number of Coley's I came across that had the given name Francis. I came to the conclusion that some early Francis Coley had an extra large family and that for several generation thereafter everyone had to have a Francis in the family. May be off my rocker but there were an awful lot of Francis Coley's around at one time.

So long for now.

Jim Francis

Dear Vivian,

A quick check of my Colley files does not reveal the name FRANCIS, but I'll be happy to exchange information with you and give you the names of two or three other Colley researchers. Before I do photocopying for you on Thurs, 21 July (my next opportunity), let me know whether you need or want chapter on English-Irish Colleys from SOME ACCOUNTS OF THE PALMER FAMILY (1890) going back to 1530, and THE NAME AND FAMILY OF COLLEY, 10 pp, origin unknown, re early immigrants of various spellings, incl. Samuel Coley and descendants, John, Joseph, Daniel, Ebenezer, Ezra, Gershom, Jesse, Reuben Coley of Revolutionary era, all from CT. Some Colleys (Collet) even French. More later.

Dear Vivian,

Your letter of 11 August was waiting when my husband and I returned from holiday on Sunday. I still haven't found a Francis Colley in my files but would be happy to exchange what I have for what you have. I mentioned the Palmer and NAME AND FAMILY OF COLLEY junk in my files because [illegible] you DIDN'T want that sort of info; I was fairly certain you'd have it [illegible] to photocopy something you didn't need.

My Colley information primarily concerns the Colleys who seemingly materialized from nowhere in Washington [illegible]11 Co), VA. Much of this information is in Elisher Sutherland's book, SOME SANDY BASIN CHARACTERS, and I simply inherited it. Thomas E. Colley (c1732-180[illegible] Thomas W. (apparently by [illegible] and Richard, all b[illegible], presumably in Washington Co. I also have most of their spouses and several individual dates. The rest of the information concerns the descendants of Thomas E. Colley, [illegible] husband's grandfather, and their migration to KY, MO, and OK.

But here are some [illegible] published by Colley descendant Mrs. H. E. Gregory of Route 3, Box 148B, Chase City, VA 23924:

Thomas Collie m Rhoda Ball 25 Dec 1805, Granville Co, NC; sur. Cole Collier;
Rev. Thomas Colley, AL 1858-64;
Thomas Colley deeded 1000 acres of land in Lancaster Co, VA, to Alexander Swan on 29 Aug 1685;
Thomas Colley 1782 Tithes NC;
Thomas Colley m Sarah Markam in Cumberland Co, VA, on 6 Dec 1799;
Thomas Colley born in VA 28 Dec 1768;
Thomas Colley in Oglethorpe Co, GA, in 1800; and
Thomas Colley m Polly Wilson in Oglethorpe Co, GA, on 4 Apr 1801.

Another Colley researcher, Mrs. Charles R. Cannon Jr, 4779 Adams Road, Dunwoody, GA 30338, also has a Rhoda Colley and has been trying unsuccessfully to connect hers to my Washington Co Colleys. Her ancestor is James Colley (b 23 Jun 1752, according to Mrs. L. E. Montgomery, 2722 Cumberland Ave, Waco, TX 76707), who married Elizabeth ____; their children were Mary, Sarah, Rhoda, Nelson, Anderson, Elizabeth, Polina, David and Jonathan (twins), Nancy, James, Zacharias and Martha Sneed, all born between 1775 and 1806, probably in Oglethorpe Co, GA. Mrs. Cannon has also mentioned a John Colley in Wilkes (Oglethorpe) Co who married a Sarah France whose family was from Halifax Co, NC. She also has info on Norfolk, Albemarle and Pittsylvania Co, VA, Colleys, but my husband's Colleys may have reached Washington Co from Augusta Co, or even from PA, rather than from eastern VA.

But back to what I have to offer you--which isn't much: family group sheets on Thomas E. Colley; his sons Thomas W. Colley (1769-1855) and John Colley (ca 1780-1834); Thomas W.'s son Thomas C. Colley (1805-1878); Thomas C.'s son David S. Colley (1847-?); and David S.'s son Ira Stonewall Jackson Colley (1869-1919). Since I doubt if any of these group sheets would help you (no Francis), I'd be happy to pay for the photocopying and postage on any Colley information you think might help ME.

Sincerely,

Ruth

Mrs. Cannon has also mentioned a John Colley in Wilkes (Oglethorpe) Co who married a Sarah France whose family was from Halifax Co, NC. She also has info on Norfolk, Albemarle and Pittsylvania Co, VA, Colleys, but my husband's Colleys may have reached Washington Co from Augusta Co, or even from PA, rather than from eastern VA.

But back to what I have to offer you--which isn't much: family group sheets on Thomas E. Colley; his sons Thomas W. Colley (1769-1855) and John Colley (ca 1780-1834); Thomas W.'s son Thomas C. Colley (1805-1878); Thomas C.'s son David S. Colley (1847-?); and David S.'s son Ira Stonewall Jackson Colley (1869-1919). Since I doubt if any of these group sheets would help you (no Francis), I'd be happy to pay for the photocopying and postage on any Colley information you think might help ME.

Sincerely,

Ruth

Dear Vivian,

Your letter of 11 August was waiting when my husband and I returned from holiday on Sunday. I still haven't found a Francis Colley in my files but would be happy to exchange what I have for what you have. I mentioned the Palmer and MANN FAMILY OF COLLEY junk in my files because I wanted to make sure you DIDN'T want that sort of info; I was fairly certain you'd have it and didn't want to photocopy something you didn't need.

My Colley information primarily concerns the Colleys who seemingly materialized from nowhere in Washington Co (later Russell Co), VA. Much of this information is in Ellisher Sutherland's book, SOME SANDY BASIN GENEALOGIES, and I simply inherited it. Thomas E. Colley (c1732-1800) m (1) Rhoda _____ and (2) Judith _____, and their children were Thomas M. (apparently by Rhoda), John, George, Mildred, Shadrach, Elizabeth, Rachel and Richard, all born between 1759 and 1795, presumably in Washington Co. I also have most of their spouses and several individual dates. The rest of the information concerns the descendants of Thomas E. Colley, my husband's 4-G grandfather, and their migration to KY, MO, and OK.

But here are some miscellaneous Thomases furnished by Colley descendant Mrs. B. E. Gregory of Route 3, Box 1188, Chase City, VA 23924:

Thomas Colley m Rhoda Ball 25 Dec 1805, Granville Co, NC; sur. Cole Collier;
Rev. Thomas Colley in AL 1858-64;
Thomas Colley deeded 1000 acres of land in Lancaster Co, VA, to Alexander Swan on 29 Aug 1685;
Thomas Colley 1752 Tithes NC;
Thomas Colley m Sarah Markam in Cumberland Co, VA, on 6 Dec 1759;
Thomas Colley born in VA 28 Dec 1758;
Thomas Colley in Oglethorpe Co, GA, in 1800; and
Thomas Colley m Polly Wilson in Oglethorpe Co, GA, on 4 Apr 1801.

Another Colley researcher, Mrs. Charles R. Cannon Jr, 4777 Adams Road, Dunwoody, GA 30338, also has a Rhoda Colley and has been trying unsuccessfully to connect hers to my Washington Co Colleys. Her ancestor is James Colley (b 23 Jun 1752, according to Mrs. L. E. Montgomery, 2722 Cumberland Ave, Waco, TX 76707), who married Elizabeth _____; their children were Mary, Sarah, Rhoda, Nelson, Anderson, Elisabeth, Polina, David and Jonathan (twins), Nancy, James, Zacharias and Martha Snead; all born between 1775 and 1806, probably in Oglethorpe Co, GA. Mrs. Cannon has also mentioned a John Colley in Wilkes (Oglethorpe) Co who married a Sarah France whose family was from Halifax Co, NC. She also has info on Norfolk, Albemarle and Pittsylvania Co, VA, Colleys, but my husband's Colleys may have reached Washington Co from Augusta Co, or even from PA, rather than from eastern VA.

But back to what I have to offer you--which isn't much: Family group sheets on Thomas E. Colley; his sons Thomas M. Colley (1759-1838) and John Colley (ca 1780-1834); Thomas M.'s son Thomas C. Ans with post card - ask to have full query put in.

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

This is in answer to your letter dated Jan. 2nd in regard to the surname Coley.

In the Cooley Genealogy by Dean Mortimer Cooley (1941) is listed in the index Coley, Abilinah and Samuel pge 196 and 941. This Coley / Coole/ Cowley refers to Cooley - spelled Coley / Cooley.

We have one listed in the family sheets as Colley / Cowley. I believe it can be spelled any way. The Colley ancestor listed was born in Tennessee and died in Texas.

You may put an ad or query in our newsletter if you wish. You may also join our Society if you wish. Cost is $5.00 to join and $5.00 per year. If you decide you want to let me know and I will send you an application. Spelling variations of Cooley are: Cowley, Coley, Colley, Cully, Culy, etc

Have you tried the Swem's Index to Virginia Histories? It is an Index to the Virginia Magazine of History and the William and Mary Quarterly.

1850 Census index of Virginia should show you where they were which you probably have done.

When I get to our State Historical Society Library in Madison next I will Check. Cost would only be Xerox copies if anything is found plus postage.

I've checked our files plus the Cooley Gen. to no avail. If I can be of further help please let me know. Good luck.

Sincerely

Mrs. Jean R. Rentmeister

Dear mrs. Jordan,

I have called our Editor of the Coley newsletter to see if she prints queries of non-members - She has asked me to send her the information and she will see what she can do to help you. I am keeping the original and sending her a Xerox Copy of your correspondence. She will correspond with you directly.

Ancestry indy listed several Coley surnames. If by chance I find anything on your family I will send it on.

Sincerely

Joan K. Rentmeister

Dear Mrs. Rentmeister:

Mrs. Mildred E. Cooley has kindly answered my letter of inquiry and has referred me to you.

I'm anxious to know if your organization would have any information on the surname Coley? I have not, as yet, found the spelling to be Cooley, but then I've been in research long enough to know that spelling means nothing.

Here is what I know about my line:

Amanda Jane Coley b 1828 - probably in Wythe or Montg. Co., Va. - m 17 Mar 1851, Wm.Washington Flanagan.

Her father, Francis (?Thomas?) Coley b 1800-2 in N. C.(Census) m 28 May 1824, Wythe Co., Va.(name was spelled, Coale)-- d will probated Oct 1874, Wythe Co., Va. He married Sarah (Sally) Vaught b. ca 1805 Va. d. Jan 1879 Wythe Co.,Va. Her father was Christly Vaught who died 1830 Wythe Co., Va. He married Anna Elizabeth Phillippi.

I am willigg to pay a reasonable fee for any information that you might have. A SASE is enclosed for your convenience.

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

It was a great pleasure to hear from you and to know that you are interested in the Cooley Family Association of America.

Enclosed please find an up-dated brochure advising you of the present officers, as well as a little history of the Association. We have our biannual meeting in a different state when we meet, just having had our last meeting at Colorado Springs, Col. We had a very successful, warm meeting and much was accomplished for the good of the Association.

I will be forwarding your inquiry to Mrs. Jean Rentmeister who expects your letter and if anyone can give you help on your line, she can. If you have more information which you are sure about why not send it on to her. It all helps.

If you are desirous of becoming a member tell Jean that and she will send you an application. You would then receive our quarterly Communique put out by our editor who lives in Indiana, as you will see by the brochure.

I have been a member for over ten years now and find my work to be very interesting and educational.

You would be a most welcome member of the Association since your background is not the usual line dating back to our Benjamin Cooley, as per the brochure.

With appreciation.

Sincerely yours,

PERPETUATING MEMBERS are those who are eligible for Annual Membership and who donate $1,000. to the Endowment Fund, for which they are granted Perpetuating Membership in the Association. They enjoy all the privileges of Annual Membership.

The Cooley Family Association is becoming more and more popular, witnessed by the increasing membership and the number of queries received for Cooley family history of earlier years. To meet this growing need, plans for a national headquarters and the publication of a second edition of The Cooley Genealogy are being considered.

The Association meets every two years in different places to publicize its existence, and to enlist the interest of local Cooleys in membership in the Association. Plans are being made for the 1982 meeting to be held in Colorado in July, 1982. At that time plans for the 1984 meeting will be discussed.

At the twenty-second biennial meeting in Columbus, Ohio, on July 18th and 19th, 1980, the following officers were elected for two year terms:

OFFICERS

President—

Miss Mildred E. Cooley
160 Middle Neck Road
Great Neck, New York 11021

Vice President--

The Rev. R. Brien Koehler
5607 Williams Drive

April, 1981

THE COOLEY FAMILY ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA

DEAN MORTIMER E. COOLEY, Founder

At the call of Dean Mortimer E. Cooley, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, about thirty Cooleys met in Springfield, Massachusetts, on August 15th, 1936 — at the time of the celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the founding of the City of Springfield — and organized The Cooley Family Association of America. Electing Dean Cooley as first president, they initiated a project which has been moving forward ever since, in spite of "growing pains" and other difficulties. Organized to ensure the completion and publication of THE COOLEY GENEALOGY, the Association is pledged to commemorate the founding of the family in America and the achievements of its members, to accumulate and preserve the records of the family, and to search out the origin of the family overseas. Since the Association was established, there has been a growing enthusiasm for the history of the family. More and more people are becoming interested, and more and more of the incomplete lines are being completed by men and women who are eager to find and record the connection with their family lines in THE COOLEY GENEALOGY. One of the functions of the Association, as stated above, is to be a repository for new information about the family, and its files are growing steadily with records and data, not found in THE COOLEY GENEALOGY.

THE COOLEY GENEALOGY was completed and published by Dean Cooley in 1911. It is a book of almost twelve hundred pages, recording all of the information which Dean Cooley had accumulated in almost sixty years. In 1913 he donated the unsold copies to the Association which has now sold them all to libraries or private individuals.

The main section of The Genealogy records the descendants of Benjamin Cooley who settled in Longmeadow (now Springfield), Massachusetts, shortly after 1640.

But there have been other Cooley immigrants, and immigrants whose names have been a variation of the name, Cooley.

Cornelius Cocle from Holland settled in New York, and his descendants in Pennsylvania spell their name Cooley and Coolley. Samuel Coley was one of the first settlers of Milford, Connecticut. His descendants have made a gradual transition to the spelling, Cooley. Peter Cooley and his three sons sailed from London and settled in Virginia just prior to the Revolution. Abraham Cooley came to New York State about the year 1780 and "evolved relatives" then moved to North Carolina, and later to Virginia. And there are other branches of the Cooley family, of various spellings but their history is not a public record.

The Civil War destroyed many public — and private — records, and it requires considerable time to establish the family genealogy after such wide-spread destruction. After the Revolution, many families in the original colonies wanted more land on which to live, and the westward migrations began.

Some of the colonists, still loyal to England, moved to Canada.

All of this had its effect on private records of people, a lot of whom could not read or write, and the problems thus created are still obstacles for their descendants.

It is of interest to Cooley genealogists that variations in the spelling of the name, Cooley, are beginning to be apparent. Rightly or wrongly, variations such as Cowley, Coley, Colley, Cully, Coly, etc., appear in the public records and cause difficulty in identifying those who spelled it Cooley when they left a given area and then spelled it otherwise at their destination.

THE COOLEY COMMUNIQUE is published quarterly to acquaint the members with what is happening in the Association and to develop the interest of non-members in the Association. It is edited by Mrs. Dorothy C. Hillery, 7453 Avalon Trail Road, Indianapolis, Indiana 46250.

One of the prized assets of the Association is a series of six scrapbooks which contain clippings, pictures, announcements, etc. — all having to do with Cooleys, Cooley descendants and/or Cooley connections. These "Cooley Scrap-books" are very popular at Cooley meetings and elsewhere.

Five types of membership are available:

ANNUAL MEMBERS, who pay $5. upon admission and $1. per year dues thereafter. Annual Members must be descended from a male or female Cooley ancestor. Husbands and wives of descendants may be members. Annual Members shall have direction of the Association and its policies, may vote and hold office, and enjoy all privileges of the Association.

LIFE MEMBERS are those who are eligible for Annual Membership and who donate $50. to the Endowment Fund, for which they are granted life membership in the Association. Life Members enjoy all the privileges of Annual Membership.

ENDOWING MEMBERS are those who are eligible for annual membership and who donate $100. to the Endowment Fund for which they are granted Endowment Membership in the Association. They enjoy all the privileges of Annual Membership.

SUSTAINING MEMBERS are those who are eligible for Annual Membership and who donate $500. to the Endowment Fund for which they are granted Sustaining Membership in the Association. They enjoy all the privileges of Annual Membership.

Dear Mrs. Cannon:

In response to your query in Ridgerunners some time ago, I, too, am working on the Colley line.

I cannot tie into the information that you placed in your query but I do have a Francis Coley, b. 1800/2 in N. C. who married in Wythe Co., Va. in 1824 a Sarah (Sally) Vaught).

Your list of children's names are in no way repeated in my line, except for the Thomas. My Francis has been listed several times in records, as Thomas and other times as Francis. There are many Francis Coleys, in all time periods, clear back to England.

I was hoping that in your research you might have some record of a Francis, in Va. or N. C., that I might have overlooked. If memory serves, there is one in Georgia, also!

Any help will certainly be appreciated.

Sincerely,

P.S. My husband, Dan Boswell Jordan (Jourdan), is from Pike Co., Ga. and I'm struggling with his line also!!

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

I subscribe to Southwest Virginian and have access to Genealogical Helper through the library, and it is rare to find someone hunting the COLEY name, and though my knowledge of that name is very scanty - and perhaps yours is, too, I decided if we keep in touch with each other, maybe one or the other will find a link some day.

I know nothing of the other names you are searching as listed in Feb. issue of S.W. V. but there is a Coley in my family:

Louranie Abigail Coley, b. 1810, Tenn./ (as shown 1860 Ark. Cen) (Family tradition says French, from Alsace-Lorraine) (More likely, her father could be from there) Married Cannon R. Weaver, b. 1813, Tenn.

Though your Francis Coley was born in N. C. (Tenn. was once N. C. - 'til 1789, wasntt it?) their ages are such that they could be brother & sister, or perhaps cousins?

Knowing so little about Abigail, I haven't tried to trace her much as yet, so don't know what county, etc. in Tenn. She and Cannon lived in Carroll Co. Ark. later, and supposedly both lived to be over 100.

Sometimes I see the name, "Colley" and wonder if it could be a variation of "Coley", but have never corresponded with anyone about it.

Would appreciate your reply, if anything else is known of Coley.

Best Wishes

Irene Fey (Mrs. Norman J. Fey)

Dear Mr. Colley:

Saw your query in Family Puzzlers of Mar 2 1978 and I would like to exchange information of Coley(the spelling that I find most often).

My grt grd mother, Amanda Jane Coley b. 1828, Wythe Co., Va. m. William Washington Flanagan, 1851, Wythe Co.

Her father, Francis Coley b. 1800-2 N. C. m. 1824, Wythe Co., Sarah (Sally) Vaught of Wythe Co. Francis Coley d. 1874, Wythe Co.

I believe the father of Francis was Joseph Cooly listed in the 1830 Wythe Co., Va. censas.

I have quite a bit more on children, wives and etc. if you think you need it. Do you have any information on my Coley line?

Would appreciate any help.

Dear Ms. Jordan:

Thank you so much for your letter about the Colley family. I am sorry to be so long in answering this but have had my mother recovering from hip surgery and my husband recovering from a laminectomy and things have been a bit hectic here.

My particular James Colley seems to havebeen a Revolutionary Soldier in some place, either SC or VA. There seems to be more evidence connecting him to Albermarle and Pittsylvania Cos. in Virginia than anywhere else but no positive proof.

As to Francis Colley there was one in Halifax Co NC in 1786. One John Colley of Wilkes Co., Ga. stated in his will that his daughter Betsy was to have "the money coming from my father-in-law's estate in NC". This John married Sarah France and there are records on them in Halifax Co NC. I do not know anything about your Colley line but wish I did.

I have found Colley records as early as 1603 in Norfolk and Suffolk Va.; Essex Co ca 1704; Isle of Wight 1706; Berkeley Co 1711 and Hanover Co 1713. Apr. 11 1732 a Francis Coley of Hanover sold to Michael Holland 3360 acres new land on branches of Licking Hole Creek and borders Byrd Creek adjoining Hugh Morris, Robert Adams, Josias Payne; on head of a branch of Dunkin's Branch at Charles Massie's land; land of Vallantine Amos decd and FRANCIS COLEY's line.

This other than data on the Georgia Colley's is all I have that might help you. Do so wish I could contribute more.

Good luck in finding your line. Let's keep in touch. Who knows when something might surface to help us all. Will certainly forward to you anything I am able to find on any Francis Colley.

Most sincerely,

Jacquelyn J. Cannon

Dear Mr. Jordan:

Thank you so much for your letter about the Dolley family. I am sorry to be so long in answering this but have had my mother recovering from hip surgery and my husband recovering from a hemorrhoidectomy and things have been a bit hectic here.

My particular James Dolley seems to have been a Revolutionary soldier in more places, either SC or VA. There seems to be more evidence connecting him to Albemarle and Pittsylvania Co. in Virginia than anywhere else but no positive proof.

As to records Dolley there was one in Halifax Co NC in 1795. One John Dolley of Wilkes Co., Ga. stated in his will that his daughter Betsy was to have "the money coming from my father-in-law's estate in NC." This John married Aaron Pearce and there are records on them in Halifax Co NC. I do not know anything about your Dolley line but wish I did.

I have found Dolley records as early as 1805 in Norfolk and Suffolk Va.; Sussex Co as 1794; Isle of Wight 1796; Berkeley Co 1771 and Hanover to 1717. Apr. 11 1752 a Francis Dolley of Hanover sold to Michael Holland 350 acres new land on branches of Hoking Hole Creek and borders Byrd Creek adjoining Bush Morris, Robert Adams, Young Farris; on head of a branch of Duskin's Branch at Uharlee's land; land of William Ships dead and FRANCIS DOLLEY'S line.

This other than data on the Georgia Dolleys is all I have that might help you. Do so wish I could contribute more.

Good luck in finding your line. Let's keep in touch. Do know when something might surface to help us all. Will certainly forward to you anything I am able to find on any Francis Dolley.

Most sincerely,
